Mr. Gene Robinson
Church of Christ
3700 Forest Avenue
Brookfield, Illinois

Dear Gene:

Please forgive my tardy letter of gratitude for the wonderful response I received from the Brookfield congregation. It was a pleasure to visit with you and your family on Saturday evening and to enjoy the wonderful meal your wife prepared. Please convey to her my gratitude.

I appreciate so much the leadership you are providing our Herald of Truth work and your editorship of the Midwest edition of the Christian Chronicle. I know it must be a source of satisfaction to be able to work in an area that you know so well.

Thank you so much for everything done to welcome me to Chicago-land. It is my prayer that my visit was worthwhile to the efforts all of you are making.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
